

THE GRAMSCI MONUMENT.

NEWSPAPER

"A periodical, like a newspaper, a book, or any other medium of didactic expression that is aimed at a certain level of the reading or listening public, cannot satisfy everyone equally; not everyone will find it useful to the same degree. The important thing is that it serve as a stimulus for everyone; after all, no publication can replace the thinking mind."
Antonio Gramsci

A DAILY LECTURE FROM MARCUS STEINWEG

77th Lecture at the Gramsci Monument, The Bronx, NYC: 15th September 2013
ON GRAMSCI
Marcus Steinweg

Excerpt Gramsci Theater.

HEIDEGGER
What's the fucking problem?

MÜLLER
Man is the problem.
Man keeps having to be redefined.
"Man"—a fucking problem.

GRAMSCI
No one needs the new man.
We have to learn to cope with the old one.
It's about living one's own being, about being the master of one's self!
About setting oneself off against others.
Risking autonomy and breaking out of chaos.
It's about being an element of order.
But one's own order, one's own discipline of commitment to an ideal.

BADIOU (hysterical)
We need ideas, we need ideas...

GRAMSCI
We must create sober, patient people, who do not despair in the face of atrocity and do not enthuse about every stupidity.
